Give a warm welcome

America was once renowned as the land where people could come to breathe freely. The country was less settled then—but can feel quite crowded now, depending on where you're living. The planet's resources are scarcer and the natural environment more endangered. Still, Isaiah's prophecy and the gospel both remind us of the considerable gift that migrant people bring with them. Whether king or commoner, each person offers what they have to make the dynamic community that is the United States. Let's welcome the newcomer and remember that the infant Jesus was once a migrant, too.

SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Isaiah 60:1-6; Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6; Matthew 2:1-12 (20).

"Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you."

Surrender to God's will

At St. Alphonsus Church in downtown Baltimore you can visit the parish where Saint John Neumann served before he became a bishop. You can even step into his austere bedroom where a bed, tiny desk, kneeler, and picture of the Madonna make up his belongings. Simplicity was his obsession; becoming the bishop of Philadelphia certainly didn't fit into that plan. Yet he embraced his office and took on the task of serving the burgeoning immigrant church by learning 10 languages and doing what was best for the people he served and loved. When God speaks to you, try the gentle path of surrender.

MEMORIAL OF JOHN NEUMANN, BISHOP

1 John 3:22-4:6; Matthew 4:12-17, 23-25 (212). "We receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him."

Love begets love

A prayer to André Bessette, a brother of the Holy Cross order who spent a lifetime counseling and praying for people from his desk at the entrance to his community's residence in Montreal, says: "Grant us the grace to imitate his piety and charity so that, with him, we may share the reward promised to all those who care for their neighbor because of their love for you." Love comes from God, and we love others because we love God and find God's love in our love for others. Speaking of poor people, but in words that describe all Christian love, Catholic Worker cofounder Dorothy Day once said we start by loving the poor for Jesus but we soon love them for themselves and see each one to be special. Today, find God in others and others in God.

MEMORIAL OF ANDRÉ BESSETTE, RELIGIOUS

1 John 4:7-10; Mark 6:34-44 (213). "Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God."

Soften your heart

How often have you walked down a street, looking down at the sidewalk or your phone, and not noticed a tree, or a sign, or even an entire building? When you finally notice it, you wonder how you could have missed it all this time. This phenomenon of not seeing what is right in front of us is not uncommon, nor is it limited to the physical realm. We are often blind to spiritual realities as well. When this happens, we know our hearts are "hardened." What does it take to soften our hearts so that we can perceive the love that surrounds and permeates us every moment of every day? It begins with desire, which forms an intention, which evolves into practice, which turns into prayer, which relies on God. Consider this prayer from Sister Marianne Cope, O.S.F. for inspiration: "Let us make best use of the fleeting moments. They will not return."

1 John 4:11-18; Mark 6:45-52 (214). "They had not understood the incident of the loaves. On the contrary, their hearts were hardened."

The ABCs of the human heart

Did Jesus know how to read? You may think that a strange question—various scripture passages say he did, and how could he not be able to do something that most schoolchildren in the United States today have learned by the age of 6 or 7? But for most of recorded history, being able to read and write was reserved to a small, elite segment of society. In the Roman Empire at the time Jesus lived, estimates say that only 3-10 percent of the population was literate. Judaism has always emphasized reading and study of the Torah, however, so it should not surprise us that Jesus likely could read—he certainly read the human heart with complete understanding. What does he find written on your heart?

1 John 4:19-5:4; Luke 4:14-22 (215). "He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah."

Some rules are meant to be broken

Why, when Jesus heals a leper, does he always tell the person not to say anything to anybody? Perhaps it is because the Lord broke a rule there. You see, according to the law of Moses, he wasn't supposed to touch the leper. But he did. Jesus broke a lot of rules. That's why he got into so much trouble. But Jesus was concerned with following God's laws, not humanity's, and such obedience, as Saint Philip Neri says, "is a shortcut to perfection." Jesus pointed out that the law was made for the sake of people, not the other way around. Mercy and compassion always manage to break a few rules.

1 John 5:5-13; Luke 5:12-16 (216). "He ordered him not to tell anyone."

Do your groundwork

If you came to Earth from outer space, the sheer amount of teaching on chastity—the virtue of expressing sexuality appropriately—would convince you that it's the one non-negotiable item on your spiritual checklist. While chastity is essential, humility is the fundamental virtue upon which a holy life is based. Humility comes from the word humus, earth or ground. It reminds us that we're dust—or "not the Christ," as John the Baptist famously put it. As we decrease in centrality, God and others increase. Start from this "ground" and work your way up.

1 John 5:14-21; John 3:22-30 (217). "John answered ... 'So this joy of mine has been made complete. He must increase; I must decrease.'"

STEWARDSHIP NOTES

"Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." Matthew 2:11

The image of the Magi kneeling before the infant Jesus and opening their treasure chests for Him is an image that we should all try to follow each day. In gratitude for all that we have been given, we are called to generously share all our gifts, not just the ones we pick and choose. God wants us to be generous with everything, but especially that one thing that means the most to you.

DELMONT PILGRIMAGE - THANK YOU

The 2025 Delmont Pilgrimage was a very festive, tasty and welcoming weekend at St. John. Visitors were greeted by St. Nicholas in the narthex of the Church and were able to enjoy musical entertainment in the Social Hall. There was Christmas shopping with a variety of crafters in the Social Hall and guests warmed themselves with a variety of items from the kitchen including hot cider, soups, handmade pizza, sandwiches and a variety of cookies, pies and cakes.

None of this would be possible without the many volunteers involved with decorating the Church, preparing the nightly luminaries, the bus greeters, hostesses and bakers. We are pleased to report a net income of $1,535.53. We are especially thankful to our donors: Claybrooke Tree Farm, Delmont Concert Band, Dick's Diner, East End Kids, Lamplighter, Mimi's Red Cake, Walmart, Westmoreland Performing Arts and Bob Yuska. We are forever blessed with numerous volunteers from our joint parishes.

COMING SOON . . . MOS PILGRIMAGE OF THE HEART

A pilgrimage invites us to take a sacred journey. All the parishioners of Mother of Sorrows are invited to make a sacred pilgrimage together as we undertake some renovations to our sanctuary, including the replacement of the carpeting throughout the church building and the tile in the sanctuary.

For eight weeks beginning on Sunday, February 1, we will not be worshipping at Mother of Sorrows, but will be invited to make a pilgrimage to worship at Saint Mary, Saint John or one of our neighboring parishes. Additional Mass times will be added at St. Mary and St. John.

At the same time, as Lent begins, we will be providing a number of opportunities to stay connected to MOS through a creative Pilgrimage of the Heart. We invite all to join in this pilgrimage as part of your personal Lenten sacrifice. Faith formation sessions will continue as scheduled, but may be relocated to St. John church or social hall.

Additionally, each week we will have an activity or prayer practice that keeps us connected as a parish. Some of these will take place in person at Mother of Sorrows Social Hall, while others will encourage us to live out our Catholic identity in daily life in particular ways as we share with others the joy and fellowship that unite us as a parish family here at MOS.

Our homecoming to the renovated parish sanctuary and regular worship at Mother of Sorrows Parish will be on Palm Sunday weekend, March 28-29.

We will begin this Pilgrimage of the Heart, a parish mission led by Father Joseph McCaffrey, Episcopal Vicar of the North Vicarate of the Diocese of Pittsburgh on the weekend of January 24 and 25. Fr. McCaffrey will preach at all the Masses at MOS that weekend. On the following Monday and Tuesday, January 26 and 27, Fr. McCaffrey will offer two additional evenings of reflection which are open to parishioners from all three of our parishes.

Additional information will be posted in the weekly bulletin and in the weekly emails that are sent to MOS parishioners.

Plan to join this Pilgrimage of the Heart during Lent and the celebrate our return throughout the Easter season.

The 2026 March for Life in Washington D.C. will take place on Friday, January 23, 2026. The bus will leave Mother of Sorrows Parish at 5:30 AM. The trip will include Mass at the National Basilica in the Immaculate Heart of Mary Chapel at 10:30 AM celebrated by Bishop Larry Kulick. A quick stop will be made on the way to Washington D.C. and a stop will be made on the way home for dinner at the Valley Mall in Hagerstown, MD. The bus should arrive back to MOS around 11:00 PM.

Register soon, as the bus fills up quickly! Email Barb Koury at barbkoury@gmail.com with your name and a your cell phone number. The cost is $35 for adults and $25 for students and is payable on the bus or in the Parish Office.

The Retreat begins with a Friday evening Mass and ends Sunday at noon. Activities include daily Mass, speakers, and workshops or you may choose to spend solitary time in prayer and reflection. You will have the opportunity for Reconciliation, Adoration and fellowship.
