Lace up your walking shoes

Do you feel different this year? What insights have you gained over the past 12 months? In what ways have you changed? What areas in your life need your attention? You may feel like resting for a while. But remember, you can't stand in one place indefinitely and be a disciple of Jesus. Christianity requires transformation and conversion, and these changes can take a lifetime. Invest in the resources (people, periodicals, books, and worship) that will serve as your walking shoes on your never-ending spiritual journey.

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Isaiah 8:23—9:3; 1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17; Matthew 4:12-23 (67). "Immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him."

Monday, Jan 26, 2026

Truth be told

"What is truth?" Pontius Pilate asked at Jesus' trial. His question showed how little he understood of Jesus' claim that "Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice" (John 18:37). Today, people sometimes go to the opposite extreme and are a little too quick to call something, particularly their own ideas, the Truth. However, most of us recognize that truth has to do with something or someone we can trust and rely on. For Christians, God is the one who is utterly trustworthy. How do we know this? One place to look is scripture and the truth revealed there. Listen to God's word and learn it well, and you will "belong to the truth."

2 Timothy 1:1-8 or Titus 1:1-5; Mark 3:22-30 (520/317). "Bear your share of hardship for the Gospel with the strength that comes from God."

Tuesday, Jan 27, 2026

Think differently

Jesus continually challenged his followers (and us) to think beyond rigid definitions and long-established rules. Angela Merici (1470-1540), founder of the Order of St. Ursula, was one who accepted this challenge. At a time when women were either supposed to marry or enter a convent, Angela understood that single women could live with their families, immerse themselves in their community, and evangelize through their good works. She considered the women who joined her mission her "daughters," and thus expanded, as Jesus calls us to do, our perception of family. In what ways do your perceptions restrict you? Be open to new ways of thinking, as Jesus and Saint Angela were.

MEMORIAL OF ANGELA MERICI

2 Samuel 6:12b-15, 17-19; Mark 3:31-35 (318). "Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Put your mind to it

The formidable thinking and writings of Saint Thomas Aquinas, Dominican theologian and doctor of the church, are still studied today, not only by Christian scholars but by secular philosophers as well. While Aquinas did refer to his massive and unfinished Summa Theologiae as "so much straw" when compared with what he came to discover in his relationship with Christ, he is nonetheless an important model for us today on the seemingly lost art of clear and logical thinking. We can also show Thomas respect by exploring the richness found in other philosophies and beliefs and seek to include rather than exclude, to understand more than proselytize.

MEMORIAL OF THOMAS AQUINAS, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

2 Samuel 7:4-17; Mark 4:1-20 (319). "Those present along with the Twelve questioned him about the parables."

Save space for learning

Read just about any string of online "comments"—chances are if you're a thoughtful person you won't be able to get far—and you'll quickly realize that many people don't think much about what they say. In most virtual spaces, expressing opinions and feelings, no matter how shallow, uninformed, and irrelevant to the topic, is everything. So please note: Carelessness doesn't fly when it comes to the gospel. Jesus wants his disciples to take time to learn and ponder and explore his message before they start sharing it. As Saint Jerome bluntly put it: "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ!" So do your spiritual homework, and after that remember to be kind.

2 Samuel 7:18-19, 24-29; Mark 4:21-25 (320). "The measure with which you measure will be measured out to you."

Friday, Jan 30, 2026

Put some mustard on it

The tiny mustard seed adds flavor not only to many foods but also to a number of religious traditions. Jesus used the gospel parable of the mustard seed as a model for the reign of God. To teach humility, Jewish texts compared the knowable universe to the size of a mustard seed. And the Quran states that no soul will suffer the least injustice on the Day of Judgment because even the equivalent of a mustard seed will be accounted for on God's scales of justice. Whenever you doubt that your small efforts will make a difference, remember the quiet power of that tiny seed.

2 Samuel 11:1-4a, 5-10a, 13-17; Mark 4:26-34 (321). "To what shall we compare the Kingdom of God ...? It is like a mustard seed."

Discover your calling

When we hear the word vocation, many of us think of ordained ministry or vowed religious life. Yet each of us has a unique calling that, if discerned and embraced, would make the best use of our gifts and talents. When we haven't taken time to discover that call, our lives can feel less significant or effective than they were meant to be. In honor of Saint John Bosco (1815-88), a pioneer in vocational training, take some time to ask yourself, "Who am I called to be?" A thoughtful book, such as A Sacred Voice Is Calling by John Neafsey, or a heartfelt conversation with a wise friend can help your process of discernment.

MEMORIAL OF JOHN BOSCO, PRIEST

2 Samuel 12:1-7a, 10-17; Mark 4:35-41 (322). "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time

PARISH MISSION

We will begin this Pilgrimage
of the Heart with a PARISH MISSION
led by Father Joseph McCaffrey,
Episcopal Vicar of the North Vicarate of the Diocese of Pittsburgh on the weekend of January 24 and 25. Fr. McCaffrey will preach at all the Masses at MOS that weekend.

At the heart of our Parish Mission with Father Joe will be the call for our deepening commitment to discipleship and how we as parishioners of MOS, St. Mary and St. John parishes can live as members of the Body of the Christ.
This Pilgrimage of the Heart invites us to commit more deeply to prayer, acts of charity, and a change in our own hearts so that as we live in the world, we can invite others to join us in our discipleship
with Christ.

Please plan to come to each night of the Parish Mission at St.
John Church on Monday, January 26 and Tuesday, January 27 at 7:00 PM. Father Joe will engage us in story, question, and mission to live our discipleship on this pilgrimage the heart!

SECOND COLLECTION

Annually, our Diocese participates in the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. This year, the collection will take place the weekend of January 31 and February 1. Proceeds from this collection will help the Church to overcome challenges of rebuilding after decades of atheistic communist rule, bringing light to twenty-nine nations in Central and Eastern Europe.

The citizens of Central and Eastern Europe have been freed from the evil of communism for over thirty years, but much work still remains to accomplish the restoration of the Church in this part of the world.

Because of the generous response in past years, the Bishops of the United States were able to provide aid when war and other forms of oppression brought suffering to the people of Central and Eastern Europe. Our goal is to continue to respond to the cry of the poor in these nations. Thank you for your support of this collection.

BOOMERS AND BEYOND

Join us on Tuesday, February 10 at 11:30 AM in the Mother of Sorrows Parish Social Hall for a presentation on “Understanding Social Security” presented by AARP volunteer Michael Rosenberg.

Do you understand how Social Security works? Have you wondered who is eligible for Social Security payments? Join AARP’s free “Understanding Social Security” workshop. This workshop focuses on building a basic understanding of Social Security, exploring how claiming decisions affect payments and identifying resources that can help you along the way. It can help you build confidence in making the right decisions for your personal situation.

Boomers and Beyond is a ministry serving the ‘baby boomers’ and all adults of Mother of Sorrows Parish and the surrounding communities. Lunch and learn sessions are held on the second Tuesday of each month. Topics are varied and reservations are not required. Participants gather at 11:30 AM and are encouraged to bring a ‘brown bag’ lunch and a friend. Presentations follow from 12:00 - 1:00 PM.

HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH MINISTRY

Last Sunday, High School Youth Ministry welcomed guest speaker and MOS Youth Alumnus, Nick Kravitz, who spoke to us on the topic of Catholic Psychology. His message was that because God created us as a composite of body and soul, a human formation grounded in the virtues is the foundation for a healthy spiritual life.

Nick's wife, Mary, also joined us and they talked about the joys and challenges of living a sacramental Catholic marriage. We also blessed our meeting space in the lower narthex with the Epiphany house blessing and inscription on the wall.

On Sunday, January 25, we will begin our study of the Sacraments with an overview of these seven signs of grace that were instituted by Christ and entrusted to the Church. Bring a friend and join us from 7:00 to 9:00 PM in the MOS Social Hall.

On Sunday, February 1, we will have our first Night of Encounter for the semester and the topic will be "Healthy relationships and Breaking up." We will meet for good conversation and an opportunity for adoration, praise, and confession. Please come and bring a friend!

LIVING STATIONS OF THE CROSS 30TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

This year marks the 30th year that MOS Youth Ministry will be presenting the Living Stations of the Cross, and we invite all former cast members years past to join us on Friday, March 27 at 7:00 PM in the school for this anniversary presentation.

There will be a reception afterward for all with light refreshments and a photo retrospective of the Living Stations from the past 30 years. If you know of any former cast members, please invite them to join us if they can. Please RSVP to jgindhart@dioceseofgreensburg.org if you plan to attend.

MOTHER OF SORROWS CATHOLIC SCHOOL

OPEN HOUSE

Visit Mother of Sorrows School to take a tour after 9:30 AM Mass.

It's our kick-off of Catholic Schools Week !

Please join us from 10:30 AM to 1:30 PM on Sunday, January 25!

The 4th grade students on the left share how they fill their cups with positive things - they learned that this is important for their well-being during an Olweus lesson in Mrs. Ducruet's class.

Mrs. Gnesda's first graders find great ways to have fun during indoor recess on a cold day.
