Your turn at bat

Ever feel overwhelmed in the face of a monumental experience? Many of us have been there, including the prophet Isaiah. Isaiah had known firsthand the glory of God. In the face of such great beauty and goodness, he felt keenly his own imperfections and those of his community. Yet, God accepted Isaiah as he was and at the same time helped transform him so that he felt empowered to step up and volunteer his life. Today is a good time to ask yourself whether you are prepared to step up to the plate and offer your life to God.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8; 1 Corinthians 15:1-11 or 15:3-8, 11; Luke 5:1-11 (75). "Here I am, 'I said; 'send me!"

Glory be to God!

To ponder our beginnings is always stunning. The Catechism of the Catholic Church notes that scientific studies have enriched our knowledge of the age and dimensions of the cosmos: "These discoveries invite us to even greater admiration for the greatness of the Creator, prompting us to give him thanks for all his works and for the understanding and wisdom he gives to scholars and researchers." The shortest month often feels like the longest in our hemisphere, yet being stopped in our snowy tracks on an ordinary day to become aware of the Creator God is a call to praise.

Genesis 1:1-19; Mark 6:53-56 (329). "In the beginning . . . God created the heavens and the earth."

Get in sync

The 19th-century Dictionary of Phrase and Fable defined "lip service" as "verbal devotion; honoring with the lips while the heart takes no part nor lot in the matter." This definition—drawn from centuries of wisdom from biblical times to today—still holds true. Technology may progress and develop, but human nature remains stubbornly the same. The next time you find yourself in worship, whether in a pew, a prayer group, or in your own home, reflect on whether what is on your lips is also in your heart. If not, pray for a more perfect alignment between the two!

Genesis 1:20—2:4a; Mark 7:1-13 (330). "This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me."

Recommended daily dose

Each year, Americans spend billions on diet programs and regimens, reflecting a deep obsession with controlling food intake. Pop psychologist Dr. Phil suggests that this preoccupation often masks a deeper desire to control something more profound: how we feel about ourselves. Jesus recognized this tendency more than 2,000 years ago, urging people to focus on how their inner attitudes are reflected in their thoughts, words, and actions. As we prioritize healthy eating and balanced nutrition, let's also remember to nourish our souls. Along with wholesome food, let's make time for daily introspection and prayerful contemplation.

Genesis 2:4b-9, 15-17; Mark 7:14-23 (331). "All these evils come from within and they defile."

Thursday, Feb 13, 2025

Love without borders

Syro-Phoenicians, who were enemies of Israel and didn't share in the same faith, were, in the minds of Jesus' disciples, unworthy of God's help. But Jesus turned that attitude on its head by teaching that all human life has sacred dignity and is beloved by God, even the lives of our enemies. Christians have struggled with this teaching, and at various times in history found it easier to condemn and shun rather than love those who are different. Reflect on those you might find unworthy of God's love and strive to show them compassion.

Genesis 2:18-25; Mark 7:24-30 (332). "Lord, even the dogs under the table eat the children's scraps."

Savor wisdom

"Knowledge is power," said Ben Franklin. The serpent said the same thing to Eve, and she bought it. Although knowledge often does give us access to the corridors of power, it doesn't guarantee us wisdom. Wisdom, an attribute of God, is acquired only through the indwelling Holy Spirit. In the Bible, knowledge is imagined sometimes as tantalizing fruit dangling from a forbidden tree. Wisdom, however, sets a lavish table at which her guests may dine by accepting her invitation. When faced with the choice, take the opportunity to savor the meal that lasts to eternity.

Genesis 3:1-8; Mark 7:31-37 (333). "God knows well that the moment you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods."

Saturday, Feb 15, 2025

Don't fill up on junk

Some people will always set out food when you visit their homes no matter what time of day it is. If you're smart you learn to drop by when you're good and hungry! Jesus never let anyone walk away hungry either—even if it meant setting the table for 5,000. His mother foretold that fact in her great song, the Magnificat: "He has filled the hungry with good things." When tired of the empty offerings of the world, pray Mary's Magnificat (Luke 1:47-55) in faith that God will fill you with what truly satisfies.

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY
Genesis 3:9-24; Mark 8:1-10 (334). "If I send them away hungry to their homes, they will collapse on the way."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time

STEWARDSHIP NOTES

“Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, ‘Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?’ ‘Here I am,’ I said, ‘send me!’” - ISAIAH 6:8

Every day, in little ways and in big ways, God asks, “Whom shall I send?” Whether it is someone to take on a new ministry, to give a friendly smile to a stranger or to say a word of encouragement to a friend, God constantly provides opportunities to help someone in need. God is always talking to us; we just need to pay more attention. When you hear God calling have the courage to walk through the door and say, “Here I am, Lord.”

THANK YOU

Thanks to our faithful parishioners, we were able to generously send $5,355 to the Archdiocese of Caceres in the Philippines for typhoon relief. This is the home diocese of Fr. Jay and a number of our international priests.

St. Mary Parish recently received a bequest in the amount of $250,000 from the estate of former parishioner Suzanne M. Ribnicky. These funds will be deposited in the Parish Endowment Fund to provide for the future needs of the parish.

It is our hope to grow our endowment fund by asking parishioners to include the parish in their will or estate plan. If you would like more information, please contact Monsignor Michael.

BOOMERS AND BEYOND

Join us on Tuesday, February 11 at 11:30 AM in the Mother of Sorrows Parish Social Hall for a presentation on "Getting to the Heart of the Story- The human heart and the heart of God", presented by Dr. Tom Octave.

The heart is the place of encounter between God and humanity. Pope Francis recently wrote the encyclical letter "Delixit Nos" on the human and Divine love of the Heart of Jesus Christ. We will explore the practical implications of Pope Francis' message for us as we get to the heart of the story of God's great love for all people.

Boomers and Beyond is a ministry serving the 'baby boomers' and all adults of Mother of Sorrows Parish and the surrounding communities. Lunch and learn sessions are held on the second Tuesday of each month. Topics are varied and reservations are not required. Participants are encouraged to bring a 'brown bag' lunch and a friend.

HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH MINISTRY

All High School Youth are invited to meet on Sunday, February 9 from 3:00 to 5:00 PM in the lower narthex to welcome a special guest speaker. We are pleased to have a Franciscan T.O.R. Sister coming to talk about the daily life, work, and charisms of the order and to answer our questions. Please invite a friend and join us!

Last Sunday, High School Youth Ministry discussed hearing God's voice through praying with Scripture, and played a game that tested their ability to recognize a familiar voice. Four teens were blindfolded and took turns trying to identify the voice they heard responding to their call of "Mother of..." with the response, "Sorrows!" Congratulations to Nathan Kuzmkowski for garnering the most correct calls!

Each small group was given a passage from Scripture to read and discuss and pray about as they tried to hear God's voice in the Sacred text. Their gathering space in the lower narthex was blessed with a Crucifix, and the "doorway" was chalked with the traditional prayer to bless "our coming in and our going out."

AN INVITATION FOR YOUNG MEN

All young men who are interested in exploring God's call and who are open to learning more about the Priesthood are invited to the next spring gathering on Sunday, March 2 at Saint John de La Salle Parish, 497 Athena Drive, Delmont.

Each gathering will include prayer, discussion, and the sharing of helpful resources. For more information or to make your attendance plans known, please contact Father Dave Slusarick, Associate Director, Office for Priestly Vocations at dslusarick@dioceseofgreensburg.org.
