Choose the right route

Breaking Bad, the highly acclaimed television series (2008-13) in which a desperate and dying chemistry teacher decides to become a producer of methamphetamine to make sure his family is cared for, is a modern morality tale that illustrates the destruction and death that are the consequences of making wrong choices, or “breaking bad,” as it were. With each ill-conceived decision it becomes easier to make the next until you become so turned around that you completely lose your moral compass. Take the time to map out your choices to see where they will lead—and then choose the path of righteousness.

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sirach 15:15-20; 1 Corinthians 2:6-10; Matthew 5:17-37 (76).

“Whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven.”

A sure sign

Generations still seek a sign. But often we look for signs in the wrong place and remain oblivious to the divine inklings all around us. “If there is anyone who is not enlightened by this sublime magnificence of created things,” says Saint Bonaventure, “he is blind. If there is anyone who, seeing all these works of God, does not praise Him, he is dumb; if there is anyone who, from so many signs, cannot perceive God, that man is foolish.” Open your eyes and look around. When the brokenhearted take heart and the hard-hearted show some mercy—those are signs that God has gotten through. Want to find other divine signs? Fix your gaze on love.

James 1:1-11; Mark 8:11-13 (335). “Why does this generation seek a sign?”

Tuesday, Feb 17, 2026

It's hard to keep it simple

Being “hard of heart” might be the biblical equivalent of having a thick skull. And most of the time the disciples, God bless them, are guilty as charged. At many points in the gospel accounts they misunderstand, misinterpret, or otherwise mismanage the Good News Jesus is trying to communicate to them. They are therefore the perfect role models for all who have followed Jesus since then. The simplicity and clarity of notions such as “love one another” and “do unto others” leaves us looking for an escape clause—it can’t be that simple, can it? Try to keep an open mind—and heart.

James 1:12-18; Mark 8:14-21 (336). “Do you not yet understand or comprehend? Are your hearts hardened?”

Spring cleaning for the soul

It’s the beginning of a new season of Lent for those who believe. Lent traditionally takes on a penitential tone with somber purple color and the practice of fasting, prayer, and charitable giving. But we shouldn’t forget that Lent comes from the Old English word for “spring,” and in this sense it’s a sort of spiritual new year, a season of rebirth and renewal. “Lent is a time of grace, a time for conversion, a time to come home to God,” says Saint Maximilian Kolbe. During Lent we cultivate better habits for a healthy heart. What will you refrain from (fasting), how will you seek God (prayer), and where will you share your love (almsgiving) these 40 days?

ASH WEDNESDAY; DAY OF FAST AND ABSTINENCE

Joel 2:12-18; 2 Corinthians 5:20-6:2; Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18

(219). “When you fast, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites.”

Thursday, Feb 19, 2026

The pain is worth the gain

When Jesus asks us to take up our cross daily and follow him, he’s not saying we need to seek out maximum pain. But he is saying that we can and should embrace suffering that is inescapable or for a higher good, rather than trying to avoid it at all costs. “Nothing great is ever achieved without much enduring,” Saint Catherine of Siena reminds us. To take up our cross means to give our lives over to walking in the loving ways of God—a love which, as every Eucharist reminds us, is willing to sacrifice and suffer for others. May you find yourself at cross purposes today.

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Deuteronomy 30:15-20; Luke 9:22-25 (220). “If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily.”

Friday, Feb 20, 2026

Not by bread alone

Fasting and mercy go together, like meat and potatoes—or, because it’s the first Friday of Lent, coleslaw and deep-fried cod. “Mercy is to fasting as rain is to the Earth,” says Early Church Father Saint Peter Chrysologus. “However much you may cultivate your heart, clear the soil of your nature, root out vices, sow virtues, if you do not release the springs of mercy, your fasting will bear no fruit.” Who might benefit from your mercy during your Lenten fast? Perhaps someone who has wronged you. Or someone who comes to you with hand out. Keep this additional advice in mind from Saint Peter Chrysologus as you contemplate moments of mercy: “You will not be allowed to keep what you have refused to give to others.”

LENTEN WEEKDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

Isaiah 58:1-9a; Matthew 9:14-15 (221). “This, rather, is the fasting that I wish: releasing those bound unjustly.”

Saturday, Feb 21, 2026

Offer one another a sign of peace

Adults try to help young people discern how to choose their friends wisely and be a good friend to others. We encourage them to associate with upstanding and trustworthy people. We pray that they will lead exemplary Christian lives, which—if they take Jesus’ words to heart—will mean that they’ll end up eating and drinking with sinners! But there’s a catch: Jesus neither joins in the sin nor judges the sinner. He merely extends an offer of peace to people who are leading sad and desperate lives. “Let the weakest, sinful soul have no fear to approach me,” says Jesus in a vision recorded by Saint Faustina, “for even if it had more sins than there are grains of sand in the world, all would be drowned in the unmeasurable depths of my mercy.” This boundless compassion is the very heart of Christian discipleship.

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Isaiah 58:9b-14; Luke 5:27-32 (222). “Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?”

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time

PARISH OFFICES CLOSED

The Parish Offices are closed on Monday, February 16 in observance of Presidents' Day.

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY CANCELLED

Women's Bible Study will be cancelled on Wednesday, February 25, due to the construction at MOS. Women's Bible Study will resume at MOS on Wednesday, March 4.

FUNERAL MINISTRY VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Our parishes are in need of volunteers to assist as greeters, lectors, altar servers, and sacristans for funerals. This is a low-commitment ministry, serving only when you are available. If you are able to help occasionally and would like more information, please contact Joann in the St. John and St. Mary Parish Office at 724-327-0647. For MOS, please call Brooke at 724-733-8870.

HOME MISSIONS APEAL

Next weekend our Diocese will conduct the Catholic Home Missions appeal. Today, nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support for this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs.

Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. Through our "Strengthening the Church at Home," this year's collection theme, we will assist the Home Mission Dioceses in meeting their basic pastoral needs.

MOS CONSTRUCTION PROJECT AND PARISH SCHEDULES

We will need to make a few modifications to our weekly schedule during the construction project in the church:

- Eucharistic Adoration continues at St. Mary Parish on Tuesdays from 12:00 NN – 6:00 PM
- Through March 27, there will be NO MASS held at MOS. The weekend schedule for all three parishes will be as follows:

St. John - Saturday 4:00 PM,
Sunday, 9:30 AM, 11:30 AM and 6:00 PM

St. Mary - Sunday 7:30 AM and 9:00 AM.

Daily Masses will alternate between St. Mary and St. John Churches at 8:30 AM.

- FUNERALS will be scheduled at either St. Mary and St. John Church through March 26.
- CONFESSIONS will be held at St. Mary Church on Tuesdays at 5:00 PM and at St. John Parish on Saturdays at 12:00 Noon.

We commend to your prayers Jamie Logan and Dr. Elizabeth Strenkowski, who died recently. May God welcome them to the joys of Paradise and bring comfort and peace to their families.

STEWARDSHIP NOTES

"For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." Matthew 5:20

The Pharisees lived according to the letter of the law, and they used this to elevate themselves above the other people. Jesus is clear – it's the love that you have in your heart, for God and others, that will get you to heaven. Simply following church rules to the letter and not out of love, does not necessarily put you on the path to heaven. Attending Sunday Mass and then gossiping about a fellow parishioner on the parking lot is an example of being a modern-day Pharisee.

LENTEN TAIZÉ PRAYER

Taizé is a distinctive style of meditation prayer developed by an ecumenical community of monks in rural France. This quiet, moving reflective prayer combines elements of the Church's traditional Liturgy of the Hours with elements of contemplative meditation.

A typical Taizé prayer service incorporates periods of silence with meditative readings from Scripture, prayers of praise and intercession, and the frequent repetition of simple, contemporary chants based on the Psalms or other parts of Scripture. The result is to gradually move prayer from the head to the heart.

Join us for Taizé prayer in St. Mary Church on Thursdays in Lent at 7:00 PM.

THE THEOLOGY OF MINISTRY FOR LITURGICAL MINISTERS

Workshops for ALL readers, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, greeters and ushers from our three parishes are scheduled during the Lenten season.
