

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

(YEAR A)

Release Us by Your Spirit

God of all life,
who raised Lazarus from the dead,
and released the poor from their suffering,
you lead us in the land of the living:
bless us and give us your Spirit,
your Spirit of generosity and holiness,
of life and of creative energy.
Lift us from our graves of sinfulness and raise us from our dry and wasteful ways.
May our sins be left behind and our life in your Spirit bring us joy.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Spirit Dwelling Within

Today's readings: Ezekiel 37:12-14; Psalm 130:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8; Romans 8:8-11; John 11:1-45. The Spirit of God gives life. Today's readings emphasize the role of the Spirit in those apparently dead. Ezekiel emphasizes this image vividly: graves will be opened, and we will rise from them. That is only the beginning, though. God will settle us in our land by putting his Spirit within us.

Have you already died, buried in a grave of apathy, disillusionment, or sinfulness? Have you allowed a negative attitude to cut you off from God? If so, you have dug your grave. The first reading reminds us that God's Spirit is in us that we might live; and we are not just to live, but "settle" in the land of the living.

We who have been baptized carry within us the Spirit of Christ, as St. Paul reminds us in the second reading, and therefore have life—Christ's life—dwelling in us. That is a reminder that we are sustained by our baptismal graces throughout our ups and downs, our joys and our failings. We do not need to remain in the graves we have dug. When we are open to the Spirit of God dwelling in us, we can take part in the new life that Christ offers.

Belief in Jesus as the resurrection and the life is at the heart of today's Gospel. In the dialogue between Jesus and Martha, Jesus states, "Whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live." Martha, Mary, and Lazarus had lived the life of the Spirit of God. Jesus' raising Lazarus from the dead, then, is an affirmation that the grave had no power over a life lived in the Spirit.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, March 18

Traps for Kindness

Even though Jesus was without sin, he did not condemn. How much more should we, with our failings and shortcomings, follow his example and offer a kind word instead of judgment. As we live these final days of Lent, let us practice kindness by complimenting others and refraining from critical words. Today's readings: Daniel 13:1-9, 15-17, 19-30, 33-62; Psalm 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6; John 8:1-11.

Tuesday, March 19

Feast of St. Joseph

"It was not through the law that the promise was made to Abraham and his descendants that he would inherit the world, but through the righteousness that comes from faith," we hear in today's reading from Romans. The phrase "righteousness from faith" personifies St. Joseph, who was inclined to quietly divorce the pregnant Mary but followed the angel's instruction and took her into his home. Have you considered looking to St. Joseph as a model of faith? Today's readings: 2 Samuel 7:4-5a, 12-14a, 16; Psalm 89:2-3, 4-5, 27 and 29; Romans 4:13, 16-18, 22; Matthew 1:16, 18-21, 24a or Luke 2:41-51a.

Wednesday, March 20

Becoming Better

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells his listeners that to be his disciples, they are to remain in his Word. Only by remaining in his Word will they know the truth and be set free from sin. Reading and meditating on Scripture is a regular practice of many to come closer to God during Lent. During your prayer time, ponder how you act out your discipleship. Are the people that you encounter aware that you are a Christian by the way you live? Today's readings: Daniel 3:14-20, 91-92, 95; Psalm: Daniel 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56; John 8:31-42.

Thursday, March 21

Beyond Imagination

Abraham surely never imagined that God would come to him to make a covenant. It is beyond imagination that God would come to make "an everlasting pact." Yet God promised the childless Abraham that he would be "the father of a host of nations." God has a plan for each of us too. In the Gospel, we hear, "Whoever keeps my word will never see death." To keep God's Word is the work of each disciple. For that work, the reward is eternal life. Today's readings: Genesis 17:3-9; Psalm 105:4-5, 6-7, 8-9; John 8:51-59.

Friday, March 22

Do You Believe?

In the first reading, we hear the prophet Jeremiah say, "All those who were my friends are on the watch for any misstep of mine." Jesus, too, knew that people who practiced their religion looked for reasons to arrest or stone him. Reminding them of the Father's good works he had performed, he asked, "For which of these are you trying to stone me?" In the world today, who is being punished for their good works? How do you recognize the work and action of Jesus around you? Today's readings: Jeremiah 20:10-13; Psalm 18:2-3a, 3bc-4, 5-6, 7; John 10:31-42.

Saturday, March 23

All Praise to God

As we stand at the precipice of Holy Week, reflect on a time when you turned away from God. Perhaps you felt persecuted or ashamed of your relationship with God. Many young people face this problem; they hide their faith because it is unpopular, yet our faith in God is not about popularity. How can we be examples of hope to the younger generation? How can you turn a tense moment into an opportunity to share God's love and mercy? Today's readings: Ezekiel 37:21-28; Psalm: Jeremiah 31:10, 11-12abcd, 13; John 11:45-56.

DIOCESAN LENTEN APPEAL

A BIG thank you to the 350 MOS families who have made a pledge or gift to this year's DLA campaign. Your generosity of $214,566 has helped to put us over our diocesan goal.

This is GREAT NEWS, as it means that any pledges and gifts that are now made will be returned 100% to the parish.

Imagine the impact on our parish if each household that has not yet made a gift would consider a Lenten sacrificial gift of $100 ($10/month for 10 months). This could generate an additional $206,000 for capital repairs needed in our parish.

As we approach Holy Week and reflect on the sacrifice that Christ made for us, consider how you might make a sacrificial gift to help our parish. Online pledges and gifts can be made at: www.dioceseofgreensburg.org/sharingourgifts.

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE

The following Examination of Conscience is provided for your reflection as you prepare to celebrate the Sacrament.

I am the Lord your God: you shall not put other gods before me.

Positive value: Reverence for God. What are my priorities in life? Do I put God first and love Him with all my heart or do I put something or someone before God? • Do I pray daily? • Do I receive the teachings of Christ and His Church with an open heart and profess them openly? Or have I resisted less convenient teachings or denied them so as to get along? • Do I receive Holy Communion often, and prepare well for this? Or have I gone to Communion thoughtlessly, ungratefully or without confessing serious sins? • Am I honest when I go to Confession? • Have I engaged in any occult, satanic or superstitious practices? • Have I avoided activities that I know can be occasions of sin for me?

You shall not take God's name in vain. Positive value: Respect for the things of God.

• Do I give due honor to God, His holy name, sacred ministers and sacred things? • Have I used the name of the Lord disrespectfully, or the names of Mary or the saints? • Have I deliberately harbored hatred or resentment towards God? • Have I cursed or wished evil on another person? • Have I lied under oath or violated a vow?

Keep the Lord's Day holy. Positive value: Worship of God.

• Do I make worship of God a priority in my life? • Is Sunday my day of rest, prayer and dedication to my family, avoiding unnecessary work and shopping? • Have I missed Mass on Sunday without a serious reason? Do I try to be there for all of Mass and try to be engaged with God, his Word and the sacred actions while I am there? • Do I fast and do penance at the proper times (Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, other Fridays)? Do I fast for an hour before receiving Holy Communion?

Honor your father and mother. Positive value: Reverence for family.

• Do I love, honor and respect my parents, other older people, and those in authority? • Have I shown appropriate care for my spouse, children, siblings, other family? • Have I neglected the aged, sick or lonely? • Have I tried to ensure that my children receive the sacraments, are given good religious instruction and practice their faith?

You shall not kill. Positive value: Reverence for life.

• Do I uphold the dignity of every person? • Do I love others appropriately and forgive those who hurt me? Or do I harbor hatred, grudges or prejudices? • Have I deliberately harmed someone, physically, emotionally, or in reputation? • Do I care for my own physical, emotional, and spiritual health? • Have I abused alcohol or drugs or driven 'under the influence'? Do I act recklessly? • Have I had an abortion or helped someone else to have one?

You shall not commit adultery. Positive value: Reverence for sex and the body.

• Do I reverence my own body and have I been faithful to my state in life (married, vowed, single)? • Am I a flirt? Have I engaged in immodest or sexually inappropriate behavior? • Do I honor my own marriage / family and support others in their family life? • Have I committed sexual acts outside of marriage? • Have I used bad language or told impure jokes? • Have I viewed pornographic magazines, film or websites?

You shall not steal. Positive value: Reverence for earthly goods.

• Do I honor the goods of the earth and of other people and try to contribute to the improvement of this world? • Do I share with those in need, giving generously to charities and contributing to the material needs of the Church? • Have I stolen, pirated or damaged other people's property? • Have I cheated someone or failed to make just restitution? • Do I gamble excessively or spend wastefully? • Do I act justly with respect to my employer, employees and in my tax affairs?

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. Positive value: Reverence for truth.

• Do I always seek to know and speak and live by the truth? Or have I lied, exaggerated or sworn falsely? • Do I gossip or reveal confidences without good reason? • Have I damaged someone's good name or failed to defend those unjustly criticized? • Have I plagiarized or been academically dishonest?

You shall not covet your neighbor's wife. Positive value: Reverence for persons.

• Do I reverence other people's bodies and state in life? • Do I guard my senses, imagination and memory? Or have I willfully lusted after another person or entertained impure thoughts? • Am I envious of the abilities, talents, beauty, friendships or success of others? • Do I ridicule, humiliate or manipulate others? • Do I encourage others to live good lives? Or have I encouraged them to engage in a sin or wrongly assisted them in doing so?

You shall not covet your neighbor's goods. Positive value: Reverence for higher things.

• Do I put the higher things first in my life or am I materialistic and part of the consumer culture? • Am I excessively attached to material goods or envious of what others have? • Do I show respect for the earth? Or do I unnecessarily damage the ecology? • Have I desired or planned to steal, destroy or damage the property of another? • Do I trust God to provide or fail to be grateful when He does?

COME TO THE FEAST

What Sunday is to the week, the Triduum is to the year - namely, a veritable feast of riches that God provides for his people.

All are invited and encouraged to attend the liturgies of these holy Three Days as we are nourished by word, sacrament, and a sense of community with our brothers and sisters.

In a special way, we will welcome new members who will be celebrating Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil.

Following the Great Easter Vigil that begins at 8:00 PM on Holy Saturday night, we will have a special reception in the Parish Social Hall in honor of our newest members.

All are welcome!!

DONUT SUNDAY TODAY

Join us this Sunday after all morning Masses for donuts, coffee and fruit.

THE EASTER TRIDUUM

The Triduum is the Church's endless reflection on a way of life that leads through the cross to the Resurrection. You are invited to come to the liturgies on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday.

Holy Thursday - March 28

Celebrate the joy of ministry that is the fabric of service to others. In the washing of the feet we come to a profound humility rooted in the example of Christ. On this same Holy Thursday night, we celebrate the arrival of the Holy Oils blessed by the Bishop: the Oil of Chrism, the Oil of the Sick, and the Oil of Catechumens.

Good Friday - March 29

Celebrate the ultimate mystery of the triumph of the cross. Unite your sufferings and those of the world with the Lord of the Cross. Venerate the cross, our sign of victory beyond pain and death. Good Friday is the birth of hope and peace.

The Easter Vigil - March 30

Gather around the Easter bonfire as we proclaim Christ is our Light! Recall the history of salvation in Word and song. Relive new life given in the waters of Baptism. Welcome new Christians and join us in the proclamation of the Resurrection and the refreshment of the Eucharist. Plan to be here for this liturgy, the highpoint of the liturgical year!

CHRISM MASS

Parishioners are invited to join us for a pilgrimage to the Diocesan Chrism Mass where Bishop Kulick blesses the holy oils that we will use throughout the year for the celebration of sacraments.

The bus will leave MOS at 9:00 AM on Thursday, March 28 in time for Mass at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral at 10:00 AM. We encourage all junior and senior high teens to join us. We will have lunch immediately following Mass at Pasqualino's in Murrysville.

The cost is $15 cash or check upon boarding the bus. Please RSVP to Jacob at jgindhart@dioceseofgreensburg.org no later than Monday, March 25 as an exact headcount is needed for lunch.

On Sunday, March 17, we will welcome seminarian Michael Skanga, who will lead us in Praise and Worship and talk with us about his vocation story.

We will not meet on Sunday, March 24 or Sunday, March 31.

GOOD GRIEF IN BREATHING ROOM

Do you ever feel like you just need some room to breathe?! We want to invite you to join your fellow parishioners to create that space together as we seek to process our grief.

Mother of Sorrows Parish will hold two separate groups with Nancy Matteuzzi, MB, BCC Pastoral Associate, beginning in April. They will each meet for six weeks.

In the seventh week, we will join together on Tuesday May 28 at 6:30 PM for a closing memorial service and reception.

Evening Group: Tuesday from 6:30 to 8:30 PM in the Ave Maria Room
April 19 to May 21

Day Group: Wednesday from 1:00 to 2:30 PM in the Ave Maria Room
April 20 to May 22

It is our hope that this program will help you to acknowledge the reality of your loss, begin to process your pain, and create meaning to help you move forward. You will be led through various mourning exercises within the safe and sacred space that we create together.

For more information and to register, please call Nancy Matteuzzi at 724-733-8870, email nmatteuzzi@dioceseofgreensburg.org, or scan the QR code above.

KIDNEY DONOR NEEDED

My name is Vincent Esposito and I have been placed on the UPMC Living Donor waiting list for a kidney. Due to my age I can only accept a kidney from a living donor. I am fortunate at this point in that my health is acceptable, my medication is keeping my kidney functions stable and I am not on dialysis. As my doctor warns me, “don’t get sick for any reason” as all that will change instantly.

If you are between 18 and 75 and are interested in becoming a living donor, contact UPMC at UPMC.com/LivingDonorKidney, or call 412-647-GIFT(4438) and mention my name. You may remain anonymous. Please pray for all patients waiting for organ donations.
