

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Moving from Mourning and Misery

Loving God,
you restore what we have broken.
Amidst our struggles with sin,
guide us in preparing the way;
help us to see your salvation.
Give us courage

to move on from mourning and misery.
We rejoice,
for you have done great things for us.
As you directed the Israelites,
lead us in joy by the light of your glory.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Led by God in Joy

Today's readings: Baruch 5:1-9; Psalm 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6; Philippians 1:4-6, 8-11; Luke 3:1-6. The first reading comes from the end of the prophet Baruch's poem of consolation to the Israelites. Though the Israelites have sinned and are in exile, the prophet shares encouraging words, referencing the Israelites' eventual return to Jerusalem. Baruch's words paint a beautiful image of hopefulness and trust in God. Encouraging the Israelites, he tells them to shed their "mourning and misery; / put on the splendor of glory from God forever." He reminds them that they are "wrapped in the cloak of justice from God," and tells them to confidently display "the glory of the eternal name." Indeed, just like the Israelites, we are led by God in joy.

In Luke's Gospel, John the Baptist's call to "prepare the way of the Lord" echoes Isaiah words "that every lofty mountain be made low / and that age-old depths and gorges / be filled to level ground." The text encourages us to meditate on the universality of salvation. How can you take on John the Baptist's challenge to repent for forgiveness with joy? Our reason to rejoice is evident, for as the psalmist sings, "The Lord has done great things for us."

Make an intentional effort this week to join in St. Paul's prayer: may our love increase ever more and more in every way so that we can be ready for the day of Christ.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, December 9

Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception

Luke's Gospel relates that Mary is "greatly troubled" at the angel Gabriel's greeting. The angel attempts to comfort her, telling her not to be afraid and reminding her that "nothing will be impossible for God." Celebrate Mary's courageous response to God's call by spending time in silence, listening to how God may be calling you. Reach out to a conversation partner and share your prayer experience. Today's readings: Genesis 3:9–15, 20; Psalm 98:1, 2–3ab, 3cd–4; Ephesians 1:3–6, 11–12; Luke 1:26–38.

Tuesday, December 10

Comfort

Speaking to the Judeans exiled in Babylon, Isaiah tells of the deliverance that is to come. He assures them that flesh might wither and wilt as grass and flowers do, "but the word of our God stands forever." In the Gospel, we hear that the Lord values each one of his followers, and just as a shepherd goes after his sheep, the Father does not want one of his to be lost. Today's readings: Isaiah 40:1–11; Psalm 96:1–2, 3 and 10ac, 11–12, 13; Matthew 18:12–14.

Wednesday, December 11

Mercy and Grace

As you light two candles on your Advent wreath, say a prayer in gratitude for the Lord's mercy and graciousness. As the psalm proclaims, he is "slow to anger, abounding in mercy" despite our turning from him. The Lord is always welcoming, for as the Gospel states, he calls out, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened." Today's readings: Isaiah 40:25–31; Psalm 103:1–2, 3–4, 8, and 10; Matthew 11:28–30.

Thursday, December 12

Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe

Our Lady of Guadalupe appeared to St. Juan Diego, an indigenous peasant, at Tepeyac Hill in Mexico. Today we celebrate Mary's presence, especially her making herself known to those who are marginalized. On this feast day, pray with Mary's canticle (Luke 1:46–55) and ask for her intercession to help you proclaim the greatness of the Lord. Today's readings: Zechariah 2:14–17 or Revelation 11:19a, 12:1–6a, 10ab; Judith 13:18bcde, 19; Luke 1:26–38 or Luke 1:39–47.

Friday, December 13

St. Lucy

St. Lucy, whose name means "light," is the patron saint of the blind. She was tortured and martyred for her dedication to her faith. St. Lucy is often depicted holding a platter with gouged eyeballs. Pray for St. Lucy's intercession today, that you may give sight to those who are hopeless and bring light in the darkness of persecution. Today's readings: Isaiah 48:17–19; Psalm 1:1–2, 3, 4, and 6; Matthew 11:16–19.

Saturday, December 14

St. John of the Cross

St. John of the Cross is the patron saint of contemplatives, mystics, and Spanish poets. After being educated by the Augustinians and Jesuits, he joined the Carmelites. St. John of the Cross encountered Teresa of Avila and was attracted to her devotion to prayer and simplicity. After being influenced by her regimented spirituality, he was punished for seeking to restore the Carmelite order. To celebrate St. John of the Cross, learn about the Catholic Church's diverse spiritual traditions. Pray with one that may be unfamiliar to you. Today's readings: Sirach 48:1–4, 9–11; Psalm 80:2ac, 3b, 15–16, 18–19; Matthew 17:9a, 10–13.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

We will celebrate the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick on Sunday, December 8 after the 11:30 AM Mass. If you are planning to have surgery, are experiencing health problems or facing the challenges of aging, you are welcome to celebrate the sacrament.

BLUE CHRISTMAS LITURGY

As we approach the darkest night of the year, we are aware that the holidays can be difficult for any number of reasons. The Blue Christmas Liturgy allows people to acknowledge their sense of loss or pain and the shadow it casts over the holiday season.

Join us at Mother of Sorrows Parish on Sunday, December 15 at 3:00 PM as we stand by one another during life's difficult seasons.

ADVENT TAIZÉ PRAYER

Taizé is a distinctive style of meditative prayer developed by an ecumenical community of monks in rural France. This quiet, moving, reflective prayer combines elements of the Church's traditional Liturgy of the Hours with elements of contemplative meditation.

A typical Taizé prayer service incorporates periods of silence with meditative readings from Scripture, prayers of praise and intercession, and the frequent repetition of simple, contemporary chants based on the Psalms or other parts of Scripture.

All parishioners from St. John, St. Mary and MOS are invited to join us at Mother of Sorrows Parish on December 12 and December 19 at 6:00 PM.

STEWARDSHIP NOTES

“And this is my prayer: that your love may increase ever more and more in knowledge and every kind of perception, to discern what is of value...” (PHILIPPIANS 1:9-10)

During the Christmas shopping season it is easy to get caught up in the frenzy of buying gifts. But, is that “gift” truly an expression of your love for the other person. Or, are you just fulfilling your “obligation” to give them something? To grow in friendship with someone, you need to spend time with them and learn what is of value to them. Maybe this year, buy less “stuff” and spend more time with those you love.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

Jesus entrusted the ministry of reconciliation to the Church. The Sacrament of Penance is God's gift of mercy to us so that any sin committed after Baptism can be forgiven. In this sacrament we have the opportunity to repent and recover the grace of friendship with God. It is a holy moment in which we place ourselves in God's presence and honestly acknowledge our sins. Receiving absolution, we are reconciled to God and the Church.

As we anticipate the Jubilee Year in 2025, parishes in the region will no longer have a communal Penance Service prior to the celebration of the Sacrament. Instead, there will be several priests hearing confessions from 6:30PM – 8:00 PM each evening. It is our hope that allowing more time for confession, we might be better able to experience the joy that comes from being freed from whatever separates us from God, who seeks to lavish upon us the same forgiveness and love lavished on the prodigal son.

Renewed, refreshed and reconciled in this sacrament once more, we are once more we are made new. It is this newness of spirit and soul that we hope that all of us will experience time and again in the sacrament of Penance. All are invited to celebrate the gifts of God's mercy this Advent at the following times and places.

Monday,	December 16	6:30 – 8:00 PM	St. John, Delmont
Tuesday,	December 17	6:30 – 8:00 PM	St. Regis, Trafford
Wednesday,	December 18	6:30 – 8:00 PM	St. Barbara, Harrison City

On Christ the King Sunday, our Faith Formation program had the incredible opportunity to participate in a Eucharistic Experience and receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. After encountering Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, our young parishioners reflect on this powerful experience. It was a beautiful way for them to connect with Christ and carry this encounter into their daily lives.

Email Jacob Gindhart at jgindhart@dioceseofgreensburg for more information and to be added to the Remind chat for updates in Youth Ministry.

At the last High School Youth Ministry gathering before Thanksgiving, the students looked at the first three Commandments, those that tell us what we must do to love God as He wills it. They discussed what love is and what it requires, and also talked about what love is not. Love is not mere emotion, but rather a decision that requires commitment and sacrifice. They played a game called "Look Up, Look Down" and were treated to pumpkin pie in anticipation of Thanksgiving.

THANK YOU

This holiday season, we have remembered teenagers in need with new hoodies; we have remembered children in need with gifts through Merry Mittens; we have remembered lonely nursing home residents with gifts that say "we are standing with you", and in January, we will remember homeless men with gifts of winter clothing. We are so very blessed to live in the midst of such generosity.

The gifts just kept pouring in for all of these individuals who do not have the ease of daily life that most of us enjoy. It is difficult to express sufficient gratitude on behalf of all of these men, women, and children, so we will just say, Thank you, God Bless You All the Days of Your Life !
