

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

Dwell in Us

God our Father,
you astound us
with life-giving forgiveness.
We are thankful for your gift of peace
and the example of the Holy Family.

Hear our prayer:
Open our hearts.
Help us to dedicate ourselves to you
and to love one another.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Put on Love

Today's readings: 1 Samuel 1:20–22, 24–28 or Sirach 3:2–6, 12–14; Psalm 84: 2–3, 5–6, 9–10; 1 John 3:1–2, 21–24 or Colossians 3:12–21; Luke 2:41–52. As a faithful Jewish family, Joseph and Mary traveled with twelve-year-old Jesus to Jerusalem for Passover. A day into their return to Nazareth, the couple realize that Jesus was not in their caravan. They are filled with anxiety as they make the long trek back to Jerusalem in search of Jesus. The parents find their son engaging in thought-provoking conversations with teachers—something that astounds those in the temple. Though Mary and Joseph do not fully understand Jesus' actions, we hear that Mary "kept all these things in her heart." As a community, the Body of Christ contemplates the wisdom, faith, and mystery of the Holy Family today.

Regardless of which readings are proclaimed at the Mass at your parish, all of today's options for the Liturgy of the Word express much of what can be learned regarding striving for holiness in family life and in the community of loved ones that surrounds us. Prayer and dedication to the Lord bears much fruit for future generations; we are advised to honor and revere our parents and older generations. To grow in love for others, we remember the importance of letting "the word of Christ dwell" in us. Let us strive to be like the Holy Family: honor, forgive, be patient with one another. Every day this week, commit to one act of service for someone in your family or community that demonstrates putting "on love, that is, the bond of perfection."

Octave of Christmas

The octave of Christmas begins on Christmas Day and ends on January 1, the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God. An octave is an eight-day feast, or period of celebration. Two of the most important times in the liturgical calendar are the Octave of Easter and that of Christmas. The celebration and joy experienced on Christmas Day carries through the octave of Christmas as we are invited to continue to reflect on the glory of the season. If you are able, attend Mass to continue your celebration of Christmas. Today's readings: 1 John 2:12–17; Psalm 96:7–8a, 8b–9, 10; Luke 2:36–40.

Tuesday, December 31

True Light

Today's Gospel is the prologue to the Gospel of John. It highlights many themes that emerge throughout the Gospel, including light and life: "What came to be through him was life, / and this life was the light of the human race; / the light shines in the darkness, / and the darkness has not overcome it." How can you testify to the true light, to Jesus Christ, who enlightens us? With someone you love, share how Christ enlightens you. Today's readings: 1 John 2:18–21; Psalm 96:1–2, 11–12, 13; John 1:1–18.

Wednesday, January 1

Mary, the Holy Mother of God

After the birth of Jesus, Mary keeps the shepherd's words about the Christ child, "reflecting on them in her heart." At the end of the octave of Christmas, spend time in silence, reflecting on the season in your heart. The birth of a child can often be a whirlwind for parents, even more so for those who have fled persecution. Say a prayer or, if you are able, send a donation to an organization serving refugee families. Today's readings: Numbers 6:22–27; Psalm 67:2–3, 5, 6, 8; Galatians 4:4–7; Luke 2:16–21.

Thursday, January 2

Remain in Him

In today's first reading, John stresses the unity of the Father and Son, stating, "Anyone who denies the Son does not have the Father." Then the apostle reassures followers in their faith: "Let what you heard from the beginning remain in you." Many prepare to return to work today after the holiday festivities. How can you let the joy of Christmas remain in you? Consider starting your days with centering prayer. Return to the sacred word you chose throughout the day so that you can remain in Christ. Today's readings: 1 John 2:22–28; Psalm 98:1, 2–3ab, 3cd–4; John 1:19–28.

Friday, January 3

Holy Name of Jesus

Today we remember and honor the Most Holy Name of Jesus. What name or title of Jesus from Scripture stands out to you (for example, Teacher, Prince of Peace, Preacher, Messiah, Savior)? Pray with the most salient one and reflect upon its meaning for you. Today's readings: 1 John 2:29–3:6; Psalm 98:1, 3cd–4, 5–6; John 1:29–34.

Saturday, January 4

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

Elizabeth Ann Seton was the first native-born United States citizen to be canonized. After her husband died, she became a Catholic and opened a school for impoverished children and orphans. She founded the Sisters of Charity, a religious society that serves the marginalized. St. Elizabeth Ann Seton is the patron saint of converts, widows, and those ridiculed for their piety. To honor her, reach out to a teacher and ask how you can support them in their work. Today's readings: 1 John 3:7–10; Psalm 98:1, 7–8, 9; John 1:35–42.

STEWARDSHIP NOTES

“See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are.” (1 JOHN 3:1)

During this season of giving, let us remember a beautiful gift that we have received – being children of God! As God’s children, it’s in our DNA that we share and express our love for others as well. Tell your spouse, children, other family members and friends that you love them, every day! Also, pray for those people that are different than you, those that you may not like or those that go out of their way to annoy you. Your prayers may be the start of a new friendship.

A heartfelt thank you to our parishioners and visitors for your gift of stewardship to Mother of Sorrow Parish, St. John Baptist de La Salle, and St. Mary, Our Lady of Lourdes.

Your generosity supports our many ministries and programs helping to advance our mission of bringing people to Christ. Thank you for the gifts you share with our Faith Community.

HOLY FAMILY SUNDAY

On this feast of the Holy Family, St. Paul gives us some good practical advice on how we can grow in holiness. He writes: "As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, put on heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, as the Lord has forgiven you. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. And let the peace of Christ control your hearts. And be thankful.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him."

May we strive to follow the wisdom St. Paul offers.

COMING HOME

Holy Family Sunday celebrates God with us now, present in our households and family relationships. We speak of “coming home,” yet home is often strained by more goings than comings.

Running from one activity to another, meeting the demands of work, grocery shopping and volunteer meetings - all these can make us strangers to our home and to one another.

Take time to be mindful of each person in your home. Schedule meals together and talk to one another. These practices help to ease our harried pace and keep us aware of God’s presence in those closest to us.

A Family Blessing

*Gracious God,
you gave us your Son Jesus as our brother.
In baptism
we too have become your children,
adopted as members of your family.*

*Thank you for all the love we have shared,
through good times and tough times.
Thank you for this upcoming new year,
with its blessings and challenges
now unknown to us.*

*As a family, we say yes
to all that can be in Christ.
Help us to treat each other
with patience and kindness
that in joy our family might share
the peace of Christ
with our neighbors
and with the world.*

*We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen*

MASS INTENTIONS

A Mass can be offered for a special grace or intention, whether spiritual or temporal. As St. Anselm beautifully reminds us, "A single Mass offered for oneself during life may be worth more than a thousand celebrated after death."

Let us also take time to remember our loved ones who have gone before us by scheduling a Mass in their memory.

The next luncheon will take place Tuesday, January 14 at 1:00 PM at Fortune Kitchen; located in the Shop n Save Plaza in Murrysville. Please RSVP by January 9 to Sandy Martin by calling 724-787-9305 or emailing sandymartin112@gmail.com.

BOOMERS AND BEYOND

Join us on Tuesday, January 14 at 11:30 AM in the Mother of Sorrows Parish Social Hall for a presentation on “Positivity” presented by Dennis C. Daley, PhD.

In recent years, the fields of Psychology and Psychiatry have expended their focus beyond mental disorders and psychological distress to positivity. This presentation will discuss positive emotions, behaviors and relationships and their impact on our well-being. The presenter requests that you wear a hat associated with something positive in your life.

Boomers and Beyond is a ministry serving the ‘baby boomers’ and all adults of Mother of Sorrows Parish and the surrounding communities. Lunch and learn sessions are held on the second Tuesday of each month. Topics are varied and reservations are not required. Participants are encouraged to bring a ‘brown bag’ lunch and a friend.

Our Parishes are now subscribed to FORMED, a Catholic Streaming Platform, and now so can you! Go to formed.org/individuals and simply enter your email address, search for “Mother of Sorrows,” and you will have access to countless hours of movies, documentaries, bible studies, devotionals, children’s TV shows and more.
