Faith is a daily commitment

The Gospel of John tells us that the Spirit came down and remained on Jesus. The wording is no accident. At one point or another, each of us likely has had a powerful spiritual experience, a genuine “moment of connection” with the divine. Without diminishing the beauty and significance of such experiences, a single “peak experience” does not a spiritual life make. It is the day-in, day-out commitment to practice one’s faith that will create a deeply rooted spirituality. The Holy Spirit not only descended on Jesus, it remained with him. The results were evident in Jesus’ life, and can be in ours as well.

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Isaiah 49:3, 5-6; 1 Corinthians 1:1-3; John 1:29-34 (64). “On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.”

That all may be one

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity began in 1908. The dates of the week were proposed by Father Paul Wattson, S.A., cofounder of the Graymoor Franciscan Friars. Popes Pius X blessed the concept and Benedict XV encouraged its observance. Protestant leaders in the mid-1920s also proposed an annual octave of prayer for unity. In 1948, with the founding of the World Council of Churches, the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity became increasingly recognized by different churches throughout the world. Take a moment today to pray that while acknowledging our differences, Christians of various backgrounds and traditions may indeed all be one in Christ.

1 Samuel 15:16-23; Mark 2:18-22 (311). “New wine is poured into fresh wineskins.”

Blissful thinking

“We all want to live happily,” Saint Augustine wrote. “How is it, then, that I seek you, Lord?” For the answer, the Catechism of the Catholic Church advises: Look to the Beatitudes—a word that means “ultimate happiness” or “bliss”—in the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus explains how to be comforted, shown mercy, filled, even to inherit the Earth and see God. Happiness doesn’t come from money or power or fame, as tempting as they might be, but from humility, purity of heart, faithfulness—all the virtues Jesus extols. When happiness eludes you, it can be recovered by recalling the words of Saint Thomas Aquinas: “God alone satisfies.”

1 Samuel 16:1-13; Mark 2:23-28 (312). “The Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath.”

Nothing is as simple as black and white

Determining good and evil is rarely a simple affair. Saint Agnes refused to obey a Roman official and marry his son, so she was considered a defiant citizen, tortured and beheaded. Jesus healed on the Sabbath and so was considered a lawbreaker, tortured and hanged. Every age has its citizens and leaders who see things in black and white and stand ready to accuse any who would dare to admit to shades of gray when it comes to right and wrong. Be careful not to join their ranks. The world is filled with mystery, subtlety, and divine truths that can’t be prepackaged in one-size-fits-all boxes.

MEMORIAL OF AGNES, MARTYR

1 Samuel 17:32-33, 37, 40-51; Mark 3:1-6 (313). “They watched Jesus closely to see if he would cure him on the sabbath so that they might accuse him.”

Thursday, Jan 22, 2026

Cling to Christ

While Christian unity comes to our attention each January, in the daily “culture wars” what divides people (including Christian from Christian) seems always more prominent. In the healthcare debate, for example, securing the noble goal of healthcare for all, including the poor and undocumented, sparks controversy and even belligerence. What of the borderless kingship of Christ? Christ’s unconditional compassion is real only insofar as it is acted in our flesh. Unity among Christians will elude us as long as any of us clings to anyone or anything other than Christ.

1 Samuel 18:6-9; 19:1-7; Mark 3:7-12 (314). “Jonathan then spoke well of David to his father Saul, saying to him: ‘Let not your majesty sin against his servant David.’”

Friday, Jan 23, 2026

On call every day

To what will you be called this day? Will it be to reconciliation and right relationship with a friend or coworker? To lead the way on a project using your gifts and a bit of inspiration from the Spirit? To lay aside your pride to help another person? To make someone smile? You may not see it coming, and you might not even realize it when it is happening, but throughout this day, indeed every day, you are called by God to bring about the gospel of Christ Jesus—to “do small things with great love,” in the words of Mother Teresa. Listen, and be ready!

1 Samuel 24:3-21; Mark 3:13-19 (315). “Jesus went up the mountain and summoned those whom he wanted.”

Saturday, Jan 24, 2026

Here’s a crazy idea: Be kind and gentle

Many of Jesus’ relatives thought Jesus was out of his mind because of all the things he was saying and doing. Sixteen centuries later people thought Saints Francis de Sales and Jane Frances de Chantal were nuts for starting a religious order of sick and broken-down women who could not follow the more austere rules of religious life at the time. Yet together, like Mary at the Visitation, these women practiced “gentleness with a valiant spirit.” The Order of the Visitation has as its motto “Live Jesus,” which serves as a reminder to all of us to do the same.

MEMORIAL OF FRANCIS DE SALES, BISHOP,
DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

2 Samuel 1:1-4, 11-12, 19, 23-27; Mark 3:20-21 (316). “They set out to seize him, for they said, ‘He is out of his mind.’”

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time

STEWARDSHIP NOTES

“Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb...”

Isaiah 49:5

God have given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do, and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don't let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and become the saint that God is calling you to be.

PARISH MISSION

We will begin this Pilgrimage of the Heart with a PARISH MISSION led by Father Joseph McCaffrey, Episcopal Vicar of the North Vicariate of the Diocese of Pittsburgh on the weekend of January 24 and 25. Fr. McCaffrey will preach at all the Masses at MOS that weekend.

At the heart of our Parish Mission with Father Joe will be the call for our deepening commitment to discipleship and how we as parishioners of MOS St. Mary and St. John can live as members of the Body of the Christ as parishioners of Mother of Sorrows, Saint Mary and Saint John Parishes. This Pilgrimage of the Heart invites us to commit more deeply to prayer, acts of charity, and a change in our own hearts so that as we live in the world, we can invite others to join us in our discipleship with Christ.

Please plan to come to each night of the Parish Mission at Saint John on Monday, January 26 and Tuesday, January 27 at 7:00 PM. Father Joe will engage us in story, question, and mission to live our discipleship on this pilgrimage the heart!

CONGRATULATIONS

Prayers and best wishes to Gianna Madison Czechowski and to her parents on the occasion of her Baptism. May Gianna always walk as a child of the light!

Congratulations to Tony and Rachel Brown who recently asked God's blessing on their marriage. May God deepen their love for one another and bless their family and friends.

HIGH SCHOOL
YOUTH MINISTRY

Last week the kick-off in High School Youth Ministry featured the ever-popular Nine-Square-in-the-Air, catering by Moe's and a Youth Ministry Expo Fair. The teens were given a look at what is planned for the coming semester and also visited tables that highlighted information about the exciting summer programs available.

Please join us on Sunday, January 18, when we welcome guest speaker and MOS Youth Alumnus, Nick Kravitz, who will speak on the topic of Catholic psychology, where faith meets science. Nick's wife, Mary, will join us, too, and the couple will talk about the sacramental understanding of Catholic marriage, tying together the two areas of focus this semester: the Sacraments and Relationships. Join us from 7:00 to 9:00 PM in the lower narthex for great discussion and good food and games.

On Sunday, January 25, we will begin our study of the Sacraments with an overview of these seven signs of grace that were instituted by Christ and entrusted to the Church. Bring a friend and join us.

FEAST OF THE STO. NIÑO CELEBRATION

St. John Baptist de La Salle Parish in Delmont joyfully announces its first-ever celebration of the Feast of the Sto. Niño. The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated on Sunday, January 18, 2026 at 3:00 PM.

Our pastor, Msgr. Michael Begolly, will preside at Mass, joined by the Filipino priests serving in the diocese. A short program and fellowship will follow in the parish hall.

The devotion to the Sto. Niño, the Holy Child Jesus, is one of the oldest and most cherished Filipino traditions. Rooted in deep faith and joy, it invites the faithful to trust in Christ with the simplicity, humility, and hope of a child. For generations, Filipino families have honored the Sto. Niño as a symbol of protection, unity, and God's abiding love.

All parishioners, families, and friends are warmly invited to join us for this beautiful celebration of faith and culture. Come and share in the joy of the Holy Child.

Viva Pit Señor!
